We invite you to come and shoot and enjoy the fellowship that abounds here.

NOTES

Aggregates M- Sub-Junior, R-Flint Smoothbore, & CC-Open Revolver were added recently, so, they will appear on the last page of the Aggregate Program.

Medals for these three may not be available at the Awards Ceremony, but I will order the medals and ribbons, and send them to the winners.

I regret the timing put upon you, and I know there are folks that made the decision not to come, months ago when the first announcement of fees came to you. I want to do everything I can to promote marksmanship, and I am glad I had a part involved in this rollback of fees.

Hope to see many of you that have planned to come and to those who have read this announcement and decided to attend, I appreciate it.

All the best,

Buck Buchanan
NMLRA/NC Territorial Match Chairman
&. NMLRA Field Rep-NC

A sideline event: Cape Fear Friends of The NRA Banquet (No connection)

For interested competitors and their families, you are invited to the Cape Fear Friends of The NRA Banquet, which will be held at the Paradise Acres of Grays Creek Restaurant at 1965 John MacMillan Road, about five miles away (10 minute drive) on Thursday, March 30, 2023 starting at 6 PM.

Individual tickets are $ 50.00 and couples are $ 90.00. We usually give away three dozen cartridge firearms, and attendance is usually around 200-250.

Your ticket includes a fine BBQ – Chicken – Shrimp dinner provided by Paradise Acres of Gray's Creek Restaurant, and eligibility for the door prize.

Last year the Cape Fear Friends of The NRA 2022's Banquet netted $20,000 to assist in financing youth programs in NC, to include the Boy Scouts, 4-H, and high school air rifle/smallbore rifle competition programs.

Your participation at the banquet will be rewarding and entertaining.
